Purpose

The compensation structure for Cromaine District Library staff is grounded on the philosophy that the high-quality services depend on having highly qualified, well-trained staff. To attract and keep staff of this caliber, the Library must offer competitive salaries and benefits.

Scope

In recruiting and retaining library staff the library competes with many types of southeast Michigan libraries as well as businesses, other organizations, and retail outlets in this area. The complete compensation package of wage rates and benefits coupled with the reputation of the staff and its service philosophy will make up the comparative package. Comparisons will use standard tools, such as the annual salary survey of the Detroit and Suburban Libraries Roundtable, the Consumer Price Index, and surveys of area employers.

Responsibility

The Library Director is responsible for establishing the salaries of other library staff, based on the compensation structure and within the salary budget established by the Board of Trustees.

General Guidelines
